NSM Engineering AG strengthens its executive board with Oliver Brack and Arnoud A. Douw

NSM Engineering AG (NSM) looks back on a very successful business development in the current year and has been able to acquire numerous new customers. To meet the significantly higher customer demand and customer needs even better, NSM is strengthening its executive board in a targeted manner.

Oliver Brack will join the NSM Group as Chief Operating Officer and will be responsible for strategy development and process optimization. Previously, Oliver Brack was Head of DevOps & Partner at Zühlke Engineering AG, where he was responsible for proposal design and customer projects as well as internal competence building. Together with his team of 30 specialists, he provided services in operation, maintenance and further development of custom software.

As Chief Human Resource Officer, Arnoud A. Douw will take the lead on all personnel matters. Arnoud A. Douw is a founding partner of the consulting firm "i opener AG" who are experts in the areas of business and leadership development, transformation, and culture development. He has multinational executive leadership experience through various senior management positions globally as COO and Head HR in global companies such as Swiss Re, Jet Aviation and Julius Bär, he has been responsible for leadership and business development and has founded and set up new firms.

Arnoud A. Douw and Oliver Brack take up their positions on January 1 and February 1, 2022.

"Our software developments and services are enjoying steadily increasing demand. With the reinforcement and competence enhancement on the executive board, we will build on this success and continue to grow. We will further optimize our offering to serve our customers in the best possible way. Oliver and Arnoud will bring new ideas and impulses thanks to their many years of international experience," comments Oliver Marjanovic, CEO of NSM, on the additions to the executive board.

Roger Studer, member of the Board of Directors of NSM Engineering AG, on the new appointments: "We are very pleased to have been able to win Oliver and Arnoud for NSM. With their comprehensive expertise, the solid foundation for NSM's successful future will be further strengthened. We plan to use this for the further expansion of our company.
